

Hospitality

"We take pride in our personal attention to detail, warm hospitality and service".

Di MacDonald - Function Coordinator / Host

We really enjoy special occasions. Our facilities lend themselves to groups, and our garden particularly, to that special day. We share our peace and tranquillity with a quaint country church. It is a stroll across the road, with a personality all of its own.

You are welcome to come and enjoy just a coffee, but why not stay for a delicious breakfast, lunch or dinner, soaking up the atmosphere and warm hospitality.

Our capacity to entertain

- Internal restaurant - 80 in an open plan environment.
- Outside verandahs - 60 - featuring drop down clear blinds to protect from unforeseen inclement weather.

birches restaurant @ mt mee

Nestled on top of picturesque Mt Mee this wonderful upmarket A la carte licensed restaurant enjoys spectacular views of the surrounding rural countryside and out to the Redcliffe Peninsula, Moreton Bay, Moreton Island and beyond.

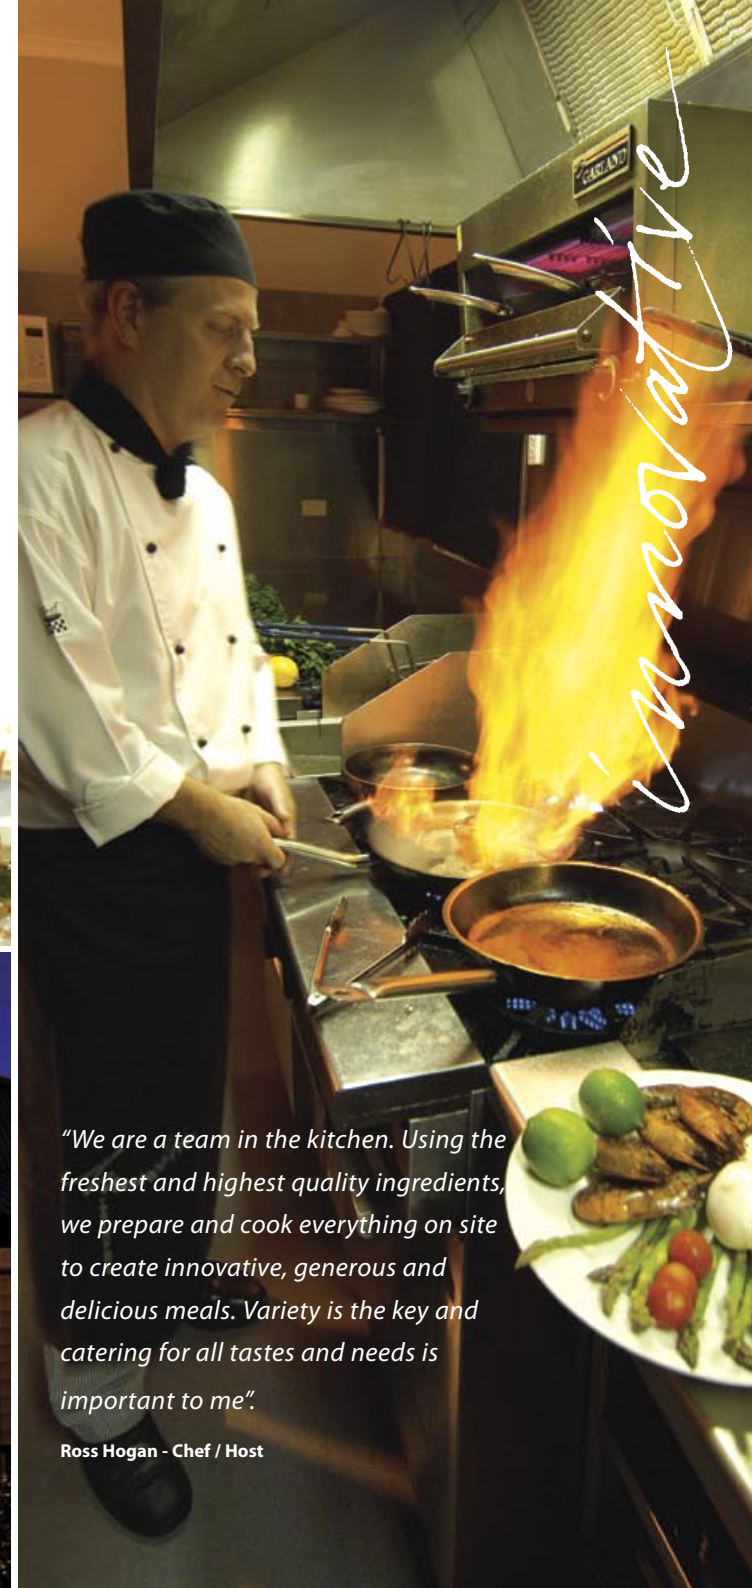

Whatever the season, day or night, you will enjoy the ambience our unique Queenslander provides.

The restaurant provides a large open area featuring a high raked timber ceiling, solid brushbox timber floors and the centre piece being a magnificent fireplace. Wander through open glass french doors to large verandahs where a relaxed café style awaits you. The environment that greets you is one of harmony between an abundance of wildlife and the countryside.
